

when you PLAY

Do fun things together as a family. Go to the park, watch a movie, or just enjoy eating together. Talk about how each person is special, and how glad you are that they are part of your family!

when you DRIVE

Whether you go to the grocery store, the doctor's office, soccer practice, church or school this month, talk to your child about how God is with them at that place. Talk about all of the places where God was with Joseph, and remind your child that God never leaves them!

when you RELAX

At bedtime each night, choose a different family member to pray for. Think about all of the things you love about that person. Thank God for your family members.

PARENT TIME

A fabulous thing about preschoolers is their imagination. It's so fun to watch them playing together as pirates or ballerinas. There have been many times when a child has trouble warming up in Preschool Praise, but when I talk to their stuffed animal as if it were real or pretend to be a cat with them, they instantly respond.

For a preschooler, the distinction between real and pretend is blurry. While this can be delightful to watch, it can also be scary for little ones. Just as they imagine themselves as a firefighter, they also vividly imagine the monster that might be under their bed. This month we will be learning that God is always with us. I have spent many nights beside one of my sons, praying with him and reminding him that his room is safe because God is always with him and I am downstairs. Our memory verse this month are a wonderful tool to remind them that God is always there.
