

DRESS CODE: We all have our own definition of “modesty”. It is important to communicate a few dress code guidelines. This is NOT about shaming anyone’s personal dress habits, but rather to keep the focus where it belongs (e.g. on God and not our own bodies). Every student should comply with the following:

Swimming: Girls, no bikinis. Guys, no speedos. When you are not swimming, please wear a shirt and shorts. A towel does not count as a “cover-up” to and from the river.

Bottoms: Shorts need to be fingertip length or longer. Nike shorts are OK if they meet those criteria. No underwear/buttocks should be seen at any time! When wearing tights/leggings/yoga pants, both boys and girls need to wear shorts with them or shirts must be worn that are fingertip length or longer.

Tops: Girls, no spaghetti strap shirts. All bras (including sports bras) must be fully covered. For everyone, shirts should completely cover stomachs/backs. Guys, tank tops are OK, but if your sleeves are wide enough for us to see your nipples, please wear something else. And note: shirts must always be worn during sports activities.

Dress Up Nights: All the guidelines listed apply to dress up nights.

Students willfully ignoring/breaking these expectations and guidelines will be subject to removal from camp at their parents’ expense.
